Alabama DOC and local authorities searching for escaped work release inmate

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Alabama Department of Corrections [DOC] and local authorities continue to search for an escaped work release inmate that "walked off his jobsite" last week in Elba, Ala.

As of press time this week, Daniel Lee Smallwood, age 38, remained at-large after he left from an assigned job location at approximately 1 a.m. Friday, Sept. 8, in Elba. He was an inmate at the DOC work release facility in Elba at the time that he escaped.

Smallwood was serving time for a burglary – third conviction out of Elmore County in Alabama.

At the time of his escape, Smallwood was believed to have been wearing a blue shirt and black shorts. He is a white male, weighing approximately 150 pounds. He is 5 ft. 7 in. tall.

During the Monday, Sept. 11, Coffee County Commission meeting, Sheriff Scott Byrd said his department was still assisting the DOC in searching for Smallwood.

"He was actively seen Saturday morning on a camera near the levee in Elba," Sheriff Byrd said. "They [DOC] had several tracking dogs working and had a track on him, but he hit the river. Once he hit the water, they lost his scent."

The sheriff said he does not believe Smallwood is considered as dangerous, but he said he does suggest residents take extra precautions such as making sure all doors to vehicle, houses, and other property are locked while he is at-large.

"We are just waiting to see where he pops up next," Byrd said.

Anyone with information concerning the whereabouts of Smallwood is urged to contact local authorities, or the Alabama Department of Corrections (1-800-831-8825).

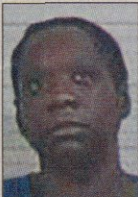

Elba residents arrested recently by Enterprise Police on drug charges

Enterprise Police arrested two Elba residents recently on drug and other charges, according to Coffee County Jail records.

On Monday, Sept. 4, Regina Knight, age 39, of Elba was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance [$5,000 bond], misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia [$1,500 bond], illegal possession or fraudulent use of a credit/debit card [$5,000 bond], and misdemeanor failure to appear [$500 bond]. She remained in the county jail as of press time this week.

On Sunday, Sept. 10, J a m a l McCord, age 28, of Elba was arrested by Enterprise Police for possession of a controlled substance [$5,000 bond], and possession of marijuana – second degree [$3,000 bond]. He was released on bond later that same day.

Meeting Notice:

Elba Lions Club will meet Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 6 p.m. Coffee County Sheriff Scott Byrd will be the guest speaker. All members to attend are urged to attend.

PATRIOT DAY PRESENTATION IN COFFEE COUNTY...Coffee County Commission chairman Dean Smith is shown reading a resolution acknowledging the ultimate sacrifice made by Ensign Joshua Kaleb Watson who was shot and killed while serving as Officer of the Deck at a training building aboard Naval Air Station Pensacola, Fla. during a terrorist attack, which took his life and that of two others. Watson was a native of Enterprise, Ala. and a 2019 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. Ensign Watson was shot multiple times during the attack, but he still managed to alert first responders and give an accurate description of the shooter potentially saving many lives due to his heroic actions. A plaque will be put on display at the Coffee County Courthouse annex building in Enterprise recognizing Watson's heroism for his country. The presentation Monday was made to Watson's parents.

With passage of Fiscal Year 2024 budget

Coffee County employees to get COLA pay increase

by Linda Hodge, Editor

With the approval of the Fiscal Year 2024 budget Monday morning, Sept. 11, during the Coffee County Commission meeting, county employees received a 2.5 percent COLA [Cost of Living Adjustment] for their pay.

The new budget goes into effect Oct. 1st. The total FY2024 budget approved by commissioners was $28,392,279.79 reflecting a 3.82 percent increase over the current fiscal year's budget.

Commission chairman Dean Smith thanked county administrator Rod Morgan and his staff for all the hours of work they put into preparing the budget.

"It is quite a bit of work to get this done," Smith said. "Because of the efforts of this team and the

"Because of the efforts of this team and the Commission trying to be conservative with funds, we were able to give a COLA again this year to our employees," Commission chairman Dean Smith said as he thanked county administrator Rod Morgan and his staff for their work on the new budget.

He said the new consoles for the dispatch center originally were being transported from Colorado when the 18-wheeler overturned in Oklahoma. That caused a new build of the consoles to be required.

Blair said the new con-soles should be delivered next Monday and installed. The following day, he said S&P Communications is scheduled to get the radio equipment up and running, and that will be followed by all the tech people coming in to put things together for the 911 calls to be received in New Brockton. He said this tech work would be at least a 2-day process.

"People should not panic while the tech work is underway," Blair said. "When these changes are being made, all calls will immediately roll to Enterprise or a neighboring 911 center keeping [the 911 service] operational at all times. Hopefully, by the time the Commission meets again, we will have our [central] dispatch center fully operational here in New Brockton."

Coffee County District Judge sets bond for suspect in 2020 Elba murder case

A Coffee County District Judge set bond Thursday, Sept. 7, for the man charged in the 2020 murder case of Elba resident Dona Jaquin Rogers.

Pursuant to Section 15-30-03 of the Code of Alabama, 1975 (Aniah's Law), Coffee County District Judge Joshua Wilson conducted a pretrial detention hearing last Thursday afternoon for Juron Waldon, age 31, of Hartford, Ala., at the Coffee County Courthouse annex building in Enterprise. Waldon is charged with murder and burglary - first degree.

According to court documents, the State of Alabama through Assistant District Attorney Kylie

Foor, advised the Court that the State did not intend to present any evidence and was not seeking relief under the provisions of §15-13-3(b) Code of Alabama 1975 as it relates to no bail. The Court having considered that no testimony and/or evidence was presented determined that bail should be set, and there was a combination of conditions of release that would reasonably ensure the defendant's appearance in court and/or protect the safety of the community or any person and as such the defendant has a right to bail.

Judge Wilson ordered that Waldon's bail be set at $250,000 each for the murder and burglary charges. Further, the defendant was advised of the following conditions of release should he be released on bond awaiting trial.

The defendant is hereby advised of the mandatory conditions of release pursuant to Rule 7.3(a) Alabama

Rules of Criminal Procedure should he post bail and be released:

- The defendant must appear to answer and to submit to the orders and process of the court having jurisdiction of the case;

- The defendant must refrain from committing any criminal offense;

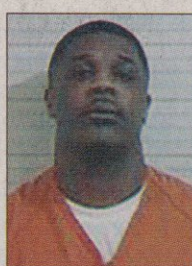

- The defendant may not depart from the State of Alabama without leave of the court; and

- The defendant must promptly notify the court of any change of address.

The court also advised the defendant of the following additional conditions of release pursuant to Rule 7.3(b) Alabama Rules of Criminal Procedure:

- The defendant shall have NO contact directly or indirectly with the victim's immediate family or family representatives.

As of press time this week, Waldon remained in the Coffee County Jail.

CELEBRATING NEW OFFICER...

New Brockton Police Officer Stefan Caldwell was celebrated Monday evening, Sept. 11, during the New Brockton Town Council meeting. Caldwell recently graduated from the 177th Session of Alabama's Police Academy. Prior to completing the police academy to become a full-time officer for New Brockton, Caldwell served with the town's reserve unit. During Monday night's council meeting Police Chief Dale Grimes presented Caldwell with a plaque congratulating him on his accomplishment (photo to the right). Above, both Grimes and Caldwell are pictured with the mayor and town council.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

"At the end of your life, the only things that will matter are faith, family, and friends." Amen.

A now-retired Secret Service agent who was on duty in Dallas when President Kennedy was shot has written a book about his experience during that tragic event. He is telling one story today (that will sell books) but it is different from his public comments at the time of the President's death. Which story is correct we will never know. However, it was upsetting to us when he admitted that the agents were all out on a drinking spree most of the night until that morning. How he lives his life is none of our business, but he was there to protect the president and we doubt any of them was fully alert that day – so what if that had been something a quick-thinking Secret Service agent could have prevented but he had a hangover and could not think clearly!

Fueled by a resurgent stock market and rising home values, US household wealth hit a record $154.3 trillion during the second quarter of this year, according to federal data. That means (technically) that consumer wealth has now completely recovered from the recent inflation-driven drop in stock prices and real estate holdings. Of course that does not help those who are not selling their home (or are not homeowners) nor stock market investors. Household and nonprofit net wealth increased by $5.5 trillion, or 4%, between the end of March and the end of June, according to Federal Reserve data released last Friday. This follows an increase of $3 trillion during the first three months of the year. At the same time credit card debt surpassed $1 trillion for the first time ever! But still . . . the vast majority of the U. S. wealth is held by a small nest of citizens and that leaves many families still struggling from pay-check to pay-check. It also contributes a whole bunch to the massive unrest we are experiencing in America.

Alabama ranks 50th in nation with adults 60 and older who are vaccinated for Zoster (Shingles!). The report listed it as Zoster and we went to Google to find out what this virus was and now wonder why they didn't just list it as Shingles instead of trying to impress us with the writer's knowledge of medical terms? Of course, Alabama is low on the list of participation of ALL vaccinations, and only a 4th of adults have up-do-date Tetanus (Lock Jaw) shot and we place in 38th place on flu shots, with an average of being in 43rd place on all virus shots. If it is any personal satisfaction, Georgia and Mississippi rate lower than Alabama! Florida and Tennessee are only slightly better.

We did a lot of social media reading over the weekend and one headline stuck with us, even though we didn't bother with reading the article. This writer was demanding that two guys in the Football Hall of Fame be removed. The first sentence indicated it had nothing to do with football, so we suspect it was some social issue this writer was presently championing in favor of and advocating having everyone who didn't agree with him would be erased from the book-of-life and banished to the wilderness.

Cuzin Lou Lou's
Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Papa is the 'grounds man' for his church – he attends a different church than Cuzin Lou Lou and Sister – and his plan was to cut the grass there after being released by his optometrist to return to normal activity following his recent eye surgery. That is, at least, until he has his second eye surgery later this month.

Trying to maintain her status as the 'good daughter' over Sister, Lou Lou volunteered to go with Papa and assist him with the lawn care duties. She already had cut the grass at the Yonder gang's house earlier in the week – although that included Papa watching her every move as she operated his zero-turn mower for the first time. While there might have been one or two "oops" moments for Lou Lou and the mower, it overall was a job well done!

Saturday morning, Papa had Lou Lou up and going early...at least he bought her breakfast before heading over to the church to get the work done.

Lou Lou's job was to weed-eat the grounds while Papa did the grass cutting. She figured Papa was having withdrawals from not being able to cut any grass the past few weeks since he does love doing that.

Lou Lou got started on her job and it went pretty well, mostly because Papa was too busy himself cutting grass to pay her any attention. Lou Lou knows this because once the two returned to the Yonder Gang's house, Lou Lou told Papa she was going to do the weed-eating there that she did not have time to do earlier in the week when she had cut the grass.

While at the church, the weed-eater had run out of cord. Papa refilled the apparatus for Lou Lou, and she began her work at home.

Now, mind you...Lou Lou has done the weed-eating work at home before, and she had just completed a successful weed-eating job at Papa's church, but he still found it necessary to stop her moments after she got started to show her what she was doing wrong in keeping the cord "out enough" to cut the weeds.

Following the quick lesson, Lou Lou returned to the job. This time she was making sure she kept bumping that thing so she would keep the cord out just like Papa instructed. Well...turns out if you bump it too often you just create a new problem of the apparatus cutting the cord off too quickly.

Yep...you guessed it...by bumping too quickly following Papa's suggested way to "do it right" Lou Lou ran out of cord too quickly again. When the weed-eater ran out this time, Papa began telling Lou Lou how she did it wrong to create the new problem.

Her response, "It was working just fine for me until you told me how you thought I should be doing it! So, I am done for the day, and you can get the rest whenever you are ready."

Of course Papa insisted that he wasn't trying to upset Lou Lou with his guidance, but it was too late. By this time, Lou Lou was hot and tired, and she had heard enough.

Maybe he could get Sister to help him next time...the one that had only just removed herself from the bed that morning as Lou Lou was finishing up her part of the yard work. So, good luck with that one, Papa!

Sister says the reason Lou Lou and Papa don't work well together is because they are both just alike...stubborn. Lou Lou says it is because Papa doesn't think anyone can do the job as well as he can. Either way...Lou Lou will forget how mad Papa made her this time, and she will be right back out there for another round next time Papa needs help.

They'll work awhile...get mad awhile...get over it, and then repeat again. It's just their way!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

MASTER GARDENERS IDENTIFYING TREES AT HENDERSON PARK...Coffee County Master Gardener's Association Members latest project is the identification of trees growing along the 1.2 mile loop trail at Johnny Henderson Family Park in Enterprise. The initial meeting of members interested in contributing to the project was recently held at the park with a map of trees once growing along the trail. Once trees have been identified, identifying markers will be placed close to the trees in a manner so as to not to hinder the maintenance crews and a new map will be prepared. The park was opened in July 1977 and is used daily by individuals, families and groups. Initial volunteers for this project are pictured above (from left) Jacque Hawkins, Paula Allman, Donnie Byrd, Maggie Sickler, CCMGA President and Forester Rodney Penuel and Brenda Evans.

20th Annual Jack Day Festival set for Saturday, Sept. 16th

Members of Altrusa International of Jack, Ala. turn this weekend to the community for help in raising funds for the club's annual service projects.

The 20th annual Jack Day Festival will be held Saturday, Sept. 16, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. on the practice fields for Zion Chapel School (Hwy 87 just north of the Zion Chapel School main entry).

According to Altrusa member Britley Parker, the Jack Day Festival is basically the clubs only fund-raiser for the year. As a service organization, Altrusa International of Jack and its members recognize literacy as their mission.

Parker said the club promotes literacy through various projects. The club also sponsors other service projects to include: awarding three monetary scholarships per year, buying books for the local daycare, sponsoring Christmas families and purchasing Bingo prizes for the senior citizens center.

All in all, Parker said the members of Altrusa of Jack strive to fulfill needs, whatever they may be, when one is recognized in the Jack community. However, to be able to fulfill these needs, she said the club must raise funds yearly, and the Jack Day Festival allows Altrusa of Jack to raise these funds.

Now in its 20th year, the Jack Day Festival has grown each year, and club members are very excited about this year's event. Parker said fun for all ages is planned for this year's event, which should be the biggest ever. She said there are already 40 confirmed vendors for the day and still more are being accepted. There is a fee to have a vendor spot at Jack Day.

While arts and crafts are the focus of the event, there are activities and entertainment planned throughout the day. There will be food, games, entertainment, a car show and more. There is a $20 fee to enter a car in the car show, and awards will be presented. For more information on the car show, contact Jerry Senn at (334) 464-0030.

"We look forward each year to the Jack Day events as we try to raise money for literacy," said Parker. "This event has been very successful for our organization, and we hope to have another successful day this Saturday."

Parker encourages everyone to bring a lawn chair and enjoy the day. There is no admission charge to attend the Jack Day festival.

For more information, contact Britley Parker at (334) 300-6974.

Grief During Football Season: Honoring Your Loved One's Passion

As football season kicks off, the mix of excitement and emotion can be particularly challenging for those mourning a loved one who was an avid football enthusiast. The start of this season often magnifies the void left by their absence, making it essential to navigate these feelings in a healthy way.

Grief is complex, and the exhilaration of the game can evoke a range of sentiments. Recognize that feeling both joy and sorrow is a natural part of this process.

A potent strategy is to incorporate your loved one's passion for football into your grieving journey. Create a personalized tribute space adorned with their team's colors, jerseys, and mementos. Ignite a candle before each game, infusing the area with their essence and commemorating their life. This practice transforms the season into a time of commemoration and fond recollection.

Attending games can be both soothing and overwhelming. If you decide to go, invite friends or family who shared your loved one's passion. Their presence can foster unity in a potentially isolating experience. If emotions become overwhelming, take a break to privately reflect and connect with your loved one's memory.

Utilize social media to share stories and images of your loved one's football fervor. Encourage others to do the same, forging a virtual community of remembrance.

For those drawn to creative outlets, channel your feelings into a football-themed memorial project. Craft a scrapbook with snapshots of your loved one at games or cheering for their team. Pen a heartfelt letter expressing your feelings and the void their absence has created.

Seek professional support if needed. Grief counseling offers a safe environment to process emotions, gain coping mechanisms, and find solace during football season. A skilled counselor can guide you through this intricate journey, helping you find healing amidst the challenges.

Remember, grief is non-linear, and your emotions may fluctuate as football season progresses. Grant yourself the space to grieve in your unique way. Embrace this season as an opportunity to honor their memory, establish new traditions, and discover solace among fellow fans who comprehend the interplay of passion and loss.

5th Quarter And What I Know

I can personally attest to how encouraging it is to experience God's involvement in my life. I am sure many of you can relate. We may have said something like "the stars will have to align for this to work out", but then it does. Can I remind you; in all things God works for the good of those who love Him and have been called according to His purpose (Romans 8:28).

As much as it excites me to have God work in my life, I am in awe even more when I see Him at work amongst a people in a way that brings them together. For those that have not heard, seen on social media, nor the Clipper write up something special has been happening at Elba High School that involves more than a few high schoolers. Here is what I know.

I know a dozen students asked to stay after "Meet the Tigers", with adult supervision, to worship their Lord. I know that gathering a month ago has led to weekly gatherings since. I know more children, youth, and adults have been there each time. I know that Psalm 22:3 teaches that God dwells where His people are praising Him. I know that His presence has been not only evident in each gathering but the whole reason for the gatherings. I know that Christians believe Paul's teaching in Ephesians 4 about unity.

"With all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all who is above all and through all and in all." (Eph 4:2-6)

I know by His grace and through the prompting of His Spirit individuals have received new life, forgiveness, healing, strength, etc. More so, a school has come together in love for one another, and I know the effects of what God is doing there is spreading to the town of Elba.

2 Corinthians 2:15 reads, "For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing."

I know that if everyone who has been touched by God continues to obey God, then what Elba is experiencing will continue in our schools, town, and beyond. You don't have to look far to see where God is working, but will you choose to seek how He desires you to be involved?

Change is Possible

Stephen Arterburn tells the stories of Marisa, Mark, and Ben. Marisa's brother told her she was "ugly, dumb, and fat" when she was only six. Dad was gone much of the time and offered her no encouragement. To relieve her pain she buried herself in her mother's spicy novels, creating an image of herself as the sexy heroine. Marisa had her first sexual experience at age thirteen, progressed to a series of illicit relationships, to bulimia, three abortions, and genital herpes.

Mark began collecting skin magazines as a teenager and soon was deeply into pornography. One day he skipped school, took a bus downtown, and visited a theater that showed triple-x films. After he married, he traveled for his business; adult bookstores, adult movies in his hotel room, and "men's clubs" became regular fare while on the road.

Ben, though married to Donna, progress from adult bookstores to soliciting prostitutes. For months he hid his behavior, but one night the police arrested him. "Donna", he began when he called home, "I'm in trouble." She dreaded to hear the rest.

Three people; the same problem in different dimensions. Can those who have fallen so low recover? They can if they want to. Ben did. He and Donna are together and have a strong marriage; his addiction is under control. Marisa contemplated suicide, but has become a strong person in her own rights and no longer engages in the former behaviors. Mark is still where he was, only worse. Two of the three wanted to change; one did not. Wanting to change made the difference. If we turn away from Christ's power to change us permanently, what hope is there? - R.H.

Coffee County Arts Alliance brings "We'll Meet Again" to Enterprise on Tuesday, Sept. 19th

The Coffee County Arts Alliance will present "We'll Meet Again" Tuesday evening, Sept. 19, at the Enterprise High School Performing Arts Center. The show, sponsored by ESCC, is set to begin at 7 p.m.

"We'll Meet Again" is a new American musical created and written by Jim Harris with music orchestrated by Mark Hayes. The director is Richard Rose.

This new musical sensation features 1930's and 1940's era music, including many of the most popular songs and the swing dances of WWII with such classics as "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy," "I'll Be Seeing You," and "Juke Box Saturday Night," while also incorporating several lovely Jewish and Hebrew songs intimately integrated into the story and also including the favorite "Hava Nagila."

A patriotic and life-affirming story, WE'LL MEET AGAIN is inspired by the life of Henry Stern and his family's remarkable odyssey of their narrow escape from German, their immigration to America, and their integration and settlement in Alabama. In 1937, then 5-year-old Heinz Stern, and his family escaped Westheim and Nazi Germany, leaving behind family, friends, relatives, and everything familiar.

They were welcomed with open arms to the small town of Opelika, Alabama. His family found love and acceptance and, in return, Henry became a true American original. He even earned the title "Mr. Opelika." For more than 60 years, Henry Stern searched the United States to try to find surviving family members from the devastation of the Holocaust.

"Our hope in creating this show is to capture the essence of what America has meant to the world in our best moments - love of family, love of country, welcoming others into our culture, and striving and succeeding together as a community," said playwright Jim Harris.

WE'LL MEET AGAIN is the second musical written by the team of Harris and Hayes.

WE'LL MEET AGAIN was developed, in part, by the world-famous Barter Theatre, the State Theater of Virginia. It received its world premiere, directed by Richard Rose, in 2022 at Historic Savannah Theatre in Savannah, Georgia and as part of the East Alabama Performing Arts series in Opelika, Alabama. The initial run was highly successful, with enthusiastic audiences cheering with standing ovations at every performance.

Longtime Elba resident celebrates her 95th birthday!

Gertrude Smith celebrates being 95-years-old

Longtime Elba resident Gertrude Smith recently celebrated her 95th birthday.

She was born in August 1928 in Wabasso, Florida to the late Simmie and Pearley Chappell before moving to Elba as a child. She was married for 62 years to the late Amos N. "Pete" Smith of Elba.

Gertrude enjoys making new memories every day, relaxing on the porch, traveling, trying new foods, and spending time with her loved ones. She celebrated her birthday with a vacation to Virginia and Tennessee with her family.

Our grandson Lawson celebrated his 13th birthday over the weekend and he and over a dozen friends and family spent a couple of hours going down a giant water slide in the backyard. The gathering did take enough time off to sing ‘Happy Birthday’ and cut the cake, but it an afternoon to get wet and celebrate at the Mularz house. Hey, it was the second time in three weeks I went to a grandson’s party. Does that make me a party animal?

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers made short work of the Houston County Lions last week to remain unbeaten in region play and while a running clock in the second half did allow the Tiger fans to get home a little earlier than expected, there is just something about shortening a quarter of running the clock that takes something away from the game. I know Elba was ahead 42-0 at the half for the second straight week and the game’s outcome had long been decided, but when both teams get only two possessions in a half and over three minutes run off the clock during a discussion by the officials about a penalty it isn’t a game and turns into an effort to just get it over with as fast as possible. Oh well, those are just my thoughts.

As for the game, Elba completely dominated Houston County in every phase of the game in the first half to put the win on ice. The Tigers were ahead 21-0 before Houston County even made a first down and it was obvious that they could name the score against their region opponents. The offense was again sparked by Alvin Henderson as he logged his third straight 200-yard game and scored five touchdowns on only seven carries in the first half, while Cayden Adkins guided the Tigers to a touchdown in the second half and almost went over the century mark rushing for the second straight week, and Brayden Johnson completed both his pass attempts to remain near perfect on the young season. It was another dominating performance by the offense, a show the Elba fans love to see! Over on defense, Elba did give the Lions two of their three first downs in the opening half with major distance penalties, but dominated as in the first two quarters it held Houston County to only 27 yards in total offense and came up with two turnovers. For the third straight week it was really two games in one, and after three weeks the Tiger defense is really much better than the final scores may indicate.

 It wasn’t the best of weeks for teams in the area as Brantley struggled again in a region win and both New Brockton and Zion Chapel lost region games at home. Here’s a quick look back at the week that was....

 Brantley held off a late rally to get past McKenzie 30-28 in a game that was much closer than anyone expected. The Bulldog offense did look improved and showed a spark, but the defense had a few problems at times getting off the field, and the result was a nail biter in a region game at home. The Bulldogs are anxiously awaiting the return of a couple of their star players, and until that happens there may be even more fans walking around with no finger nails.

 New Brockton learned a lesson that it could defeat any team in its schedule a week ago with an upset win at Opp, and learned another lesson Friday night that it could also lose to any team on its schedule with a 38-14 region loss to Providence Christian. The Gamecocks jumped ahead early and brought their fans to their feet, but did little after that and this week will no doubt get back to square one in its rebuilding process.

 Zion Chapel battled for all four quarters in a 30-14 region loss to Wicksburg and proved to everyone in attendance that this isn’t the same band of Rebels that have simply raised the white flag in years past. The Rebels scored twice early in the game and appeared ready to pull off a big upset. However, Wicksburg wore the Rebels down in the second half of the very physical contest and escaped with the win. Don’t let the final score fool’ya, Zion Chapel is coming back even faster than expected.

 Things kind of settled down a little among the teams ranked in the sportswriters poll as only a dozen of the seventy teams in the weekly poll lost. No more than two ranked teams lost in all the classes expect for 7A, which included four ‘Top 10’ match-ups in games that a ranked team had to lose. In Class 1A, top-ranked Leroy blanked McIntosh 41-0 and Sweet Water thumped University Charter 41-6, while closer to home Georgiana stunned Florala 44-0 and Red Level coasted past Pleasant Home 27-0. In Class 2A, Arifton got in the win column with an easy 35-6 romp over Geneva County, Cottonwood opened some eyes for the third straight week with a big 50-14 win over Abbeville, Highland Home outscored Goshen 42-21 in a region clash among ranked teams, and Luverne whipped up on Barbour County 42-0 in a game that had two-minute quarters in the second half. In Class 3A, Pike County got its first win of the season over Ashford 28-13 and Straughn continued to impress with a 46-16 win over Daleville, while up in Class 4A Andalusia demolished Dale County 56-6 and Geneva got in the win column with a wild 46-41 win over Slocomb. In Class 5A, Carroll picked up its second straight win with a 27-14 victory over Rehobeth, Charles Henderson pounded one-proud and winless Greenville 39-6 and Eufaula made it look easy with a 56-14 win over a supposedly good Headland Ram team, while in Class 6A Saraland made it clear who was the big dog in the Mobile area with a 47-3 whipping of St. Paul’s. Class 7A is usually not that interesting to area folks, but last week Enterprise came back down to earth with a 48-7 homefield loss to Central, of Phenix City, and Dothan fell short on a two-point conversion in overtime in a 28-27 homefield loss to Auburn. Yep, it was a quite a week for high school football fans all across the state.

 It obviously wasn’t the best of weeks for area college football fans as Alabama lost at home to Texas and Troy got pounded on the road by Kansas State, and while Auburn did figure out a way to win a long way from home, it was a struggle on offense for what are expected to be a den of high-scoring Tigers.

I had a feeling before Alabama ever took the field the season could be a struggle due to the fact the Tide didn’t have a proven quarterback and was making a change to a run oriented offense that could take a while to get rolling, and once again I thought maybe the defense would step back up. Turns out I was both right and wrong! The offense couldn’t get out of its own way at times with penalties and turnovers, and is far from being a solid unit, while the defense is no better than recent years, and appeared to wear down as it allowed three Texas touchdowns in the fourth quarter. I am a big Bama fan, but I think there are going to be a lot of games that will be won or lost in the fourth quarter, and I am not sure if this bunch is good enough to get it done when the game is on the line.

Troy had a great season a year ago and won a bowl game to finish the season in the ‘Top 25,’ but the Trojans don’t appear to be as good as they were last year, especially on defense, and kind of got exposed last weekend that while they are a solid team, they are not yet a team that will make many stops in the ‘Top 25.’

I will admit I didn’t watch one single play of Auburn’s win over Cal, but it was interesting that the Tigers had to score in the fourth quarter to get into double digits on the scoreboard. Coach Hugh Freeze and his troops were expected to light up the scoreboard no matter the level of competition, but against Cal obviously struggled. Tiger fans have to be happy about the defense in the win, and I am sure everyone in the program was excited to get out of California with a win.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator dropped by over the weekend after a 25-2 week and just shook his head over the two misses that kept him from perfection. The local guesspert said that while a perfect week of picks is possible, it hasn’t happened in two years and will just

Elba heads to Brantley in region battle

The Elba Tigers will be back on the road for the second straight week and will be looking to remain atop the region standings when they invade David Lowery Stadium to battle the Brantley Bulldogs.

Elba will enter the game with a 3-0 record, 2-0 in region play, after posting wins over New Brockton 35-8, Kinston 42-7 and Houston County 49-14, while Brantley will bring a 2-1 slate, 2-0 in region play, with regions wins over Houston County 19-13 and McKenzie 30-28, and a non-region loss to Luverne 28-14.

“Brantley had been one of the premier 1A programs in the state for a long time and we know we will have our hands full Friday night,” stated Elba’s Coach Mac Sieving. “They have been slowed a bit in early-season play due to the loss of their quarterback from last season, but he is expected to be back this week and his return will bring new life into everything they do. I know when looking at the scores of the first three games many fans will think Brantley is down a little this season. However, I assure you they are just as good as ever and will be out to prove that this week against us.”

Elba JV wins 12-6 over Goshen

The Elba JV Tigers got their first official win on the 2023 football season Monday night when the Tigers defeated the Goshen JV Eagles 12-6 in Goshen.

The JV Tigers opened the season with a tie against Highland Home before falling two weeks in a row to Straughn and Brantley. The Tigers hope Monday’s victory over Straughn will be a momentum builder for the remainder of the season.

Next up, Elba’s JV team will host Luverne at Tiger Stadium on Monday evening, Sept. 18, with the game set to start at 6 p.m. All Tiger fans are encouraged to attend.

have to be a goal in the weeks to come. Anyway, here is his fearless forecast for week #3

ELBA VS. BRANTLEY

Two of the state’s top 1A football teams will tangle this week with the winner becoming the odds on favorite to win the region. The felines from the Pea River have their claws sharpened for a four quarter battle, while you know the bulldogs from across the creek will have the pound locked tight for what they call in the WWE a ‘steel cage match.’ The guess here is that while it will be a four quarter battle, there may be just too many felines for the dog to chase away.

ELBA 35 BRANTLEY 20

KINSTON VS. GEORGIANA

The bulldogs from down near the county line took the week off to get ready for a long road trip to the woods of Butler County on a hunt for panthers. The bulldogs will no doubt track the cats for all four quarters and may even tree one or two, but it looks like the dogs may be more than just a little scratched up on the ride home.

GEORGIANA 46 KINSTON 13

ZION CHAPEL VS. SAMSON

The troops up at Fort Jack have been working hard to reinforce the gate to keep a litter of cats from sneaking in this week and stealing a win. The troops have missed their targets more than they have hit the bullseye so far this season, but the guess here is that this week they will find their range and send the cats running back home.

ZION CHAPEL 27 SAMSON 16

NEW BROCKTON VS. DALEVILLE

The roosters from over near the bypass lost a few feathers last week while trying to fly high with a flock of big birds from the circle city, and this week may have to hitch-hike over near the fort for a region clash with another flock of birds. The feathers will be flying again Friday night on both sides of the field, but in the end I think the roosters will be crowing after a big win.

Elba Tigers are Lion tamers

The Elba Tigers continued their dominance over region opponents Friday night with a lopsided 49-14 romp past the Houston County Lions, in Columbia.

Elba began its first offensive series at midfield after an unsuccessful on-sides kick attempt and from there needed only two snaps to reach the endzone. A 32-yard pass completion from Brayden Johnson to Alvin Henderson sparked the scoring drive, while the score came on a 12-yard run up the middle by Jacob Watkins. Alex Wisecup kicked the extra-point, and with only 49-seconds gone off the clock the Tigers were already on top 7-0.

Elba regained possession at the Houston County 22-yardline after a 4-yard punt and this time needed only one play to add to its lead, with Alvin Henderson scoring on a twisting 22-yard run. Wisecup's extra-point was true, as the Tigers lead grew to 14-0 with 8:02 left in the opening quarter.

The Tigers got the ball back at midfield after a pass interception by Cameron Gray and covered the distance in six plays to get back into the endzone. Cayden Adkins rushed for 39 yards on two carries to lead Elba down the field, while Alvin Henderson scored his second touchdown of the quarter on a 10-yard run. Wisecup booted the extra-point, and with 5:00 still left in the quarter the Tigers were in command with a 21-0 lead.

Elba fumbled away a scoring opportunity on their next possession at the Lions 26-yardline, but regained possession on a defensive stop on a fourth down gamble at the Houston County 31, and after an Elba penalty scored on the first play of the possession on a 36-yard scamper by Alvin Henderson. Alex Wisecup kicked the extra-point as the Tigers lead went to 28-0 with 10:30 left in the second quarter.

The Elba defense rose up

Elba Tiger fans had plenty to cheer about last week in the Tigers big 49-14 region win over Houston County, and have their bags packed for the short trip to Brantley to support the Tigers against the Brantley Bulldogs.

again on the Lions ensuing possession and handed the ball back to the offense at the Houston County 40-yardline after a fourth down stop, and from there it took the Tigers three plays to cross the goal line. Alvin Henderson scored his fourth touchdown of the night on a 25-yard run, and after Wisecup kicked the extra-point Elba's lead stood at 35-0 with 6:48 remaining in the half.

Elba began its final offensive series of the half at its own 1-yardline after a pass interception by Cody Gray, and from there the Tigers went 99 yards in two plays for their sixth touchdown of the half. Alvin Henderson scored his fifth touchdown of the half on a 69-yard dash, and Alex Wisecup added the extra-point as Elba's lead ballooned to 42-0 with 3:15 left in the second quarter.

The second half was played with a running clock due to the lopsided score, and Houston County took advantage of the youthful Elba reserves to score a pair of touchdowns. Azariel Todd scored on runs of 4 yard and 50 yards, and also ran in a two-point conversion to help the Lions hang up 11 points on the scoreboard, while Elba added a second half score when Cayden Adkins capped a 64-yard drive with a 2-yard td run, and Alex Wisecup capped off a perfect 7 for 7 performance with the extra-point to wrap up the 49-14 region win on the road.

Alvin Henderson rushed for 229 yards and five touchdowns on seven carries and caught one pass for 32 yards to spark the Tigers, while Cayden

Adkins rushed for 93 yards and scored one td on eight carries and Cody Gray rushed for 28 yards on two carries.

Azariel Todd rushed for 82 yards and two touchdowns on 13 carries to lead Houston County.

New Brockton Gamecock delivers a crushing hit to a Providence Christian defender in last week's region clash. The Gamecocks will tangle with Daleville this week in region action.

New Brockton clawed by Eagles 38-14

The New Brockton Gamecocks hosted the Providence Christian Eagles Friday night in their home opener, but saw an early 7-0 lead vanish under a 38-point Eagles explosion and slipped to 1-1 in region play with a 38-14 loss.

New Brockton went three and out on its initial possession of the night, but quickly regained possession after a Providence Christian punt and this time wasted little time grabbing an early lead.

A 17-yard pass from Dawson Peacock to Anthony Silar and a 13-yard run by Baylon Foster set the Gamecocks up deep on the Eagles' side of the field, and 'Brockton got on the scoreboard on a 5-yard run by Yassiah Rousseau. Caden Avalos kicked the extra-point, and with 5:59 left in the first quarter the Gamecocks were on top 7-0.

Providence Christian trailed 7-0 entering the second quarter, but exploded for 21 second quarter points to carry a 21-7 lead in at intermission. The first Eagles touchdown came on a 3-yard run by Eb Anderson, while Craig Pittman added the second score on a 7-yard run, and Pittman closed out the quarter with a 47-yard touchdown toss to Roman Banner. Layton Hagler added all three extra-points, and at intermission Providence Christian was on top 21-7.

Providence Christian opened the third quarter with a bang when Chapel Stickler returned the kickoff 75 yards for a score, and the Eagles never slowed down as Pittman tossed a 31-yard td toss to Christian Sutton and Layton Hagler booted two extra-points and a 31-yard field-goal as Providence Christian scored 38 straight points to open up a big 38-7 advantage.

New Brockton scored with 6:10 left in the fourth quarter on a 55-yard touchdown pass from Dawson Peacock to Baylon Foster, and Caden Avalos added the extra-point. However, it was too little, too late as they slipped to 1-1 in the region with the 38-14 homefield defeat.

Yassiah Rousseau rushed for 37 yards on 13 carries to lead the Gamecocks on the ground, while Dawson Peacock completed 4 of 11 passes for 79 yards and one touchdown, and Baylon Foster caught three passes for 62 yards and one score.

Blake Peterson had 11 tackles to lead the Gamecock defense, while Bryant Crumpler added 9 tackles and a forced fumble, and Jared Petite and Anthony Silar both had 5 stops.

Rebels drop battle to Wicksburg 30-14

From combined reports
Photos by Amanda Clark

The Zion Chapel Rebels held their own in the opening two quarters Friday night in a key region clash with the Wicksburg Panthers, but failed to get back on the scoreboard in the game's final two quarters and watched as the Panthers rallied to claim a 30-14 road win over the Rebels.

Zion Chapel jumped out to a 7-0 first quarter lead on a 14-yard pass from Mason Stuart to Micah Fuller after a pass interception set the Rebels up deep in Wicksburg territory, and then extended its lead to 14-6 in the second quarter when Mason Stuart jumped through a hole in the middle of the line and raced 80 yards for a score.

Wicksburg used a rugged ground game to catch the Rebels before halftime, and then added 16 unanswered points to pull away and claim the 30-14 region win.

Zion Chapel rolled up 245 yards of total offense in the loss, with 137 yards rushing and 108 yards in the air.

Wicksburg was sparked by the play of Logan Fowler, who rushed for 258 yards and two scores on 27 carries as well as completing 5 of 9 passes for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Mason Burkhardt rushed for 51 yards and two td's and added a pair of two-point conversions.

Zion Chapel Rebels Nicholas Hower (79) and Jackson Dowdy (2) combine to bring down a Wicksburg runner in last week's region battle.

Region battles set for area teams in week #4

The high school football season will kick off its fourth week of action this week with all area teams remaining in region wars.

Following is a preview of this week's games:

Thursday:
Kinston at Georgiana

The Kinston Bulldogs will open region play on Thursday night when they travel to Georgiana for a battle with the high-scoring Georgiana Panthers.

Georgiana leads the all-time series 8-5, has won eight of the last nine meetings and posted a 30-20 win last season.

Kinston will carry a 1-1 record into the region clash after a win over Samson 34-6 and a 42-7 region loss to Elba, while Georgiana will ether the game with a 2-1 slate with region wins over McKenzie 54-14 and Florala 44-0, and a non-region loss to W.S. Neal 22-12.

Friday:
New Brockton at Daleville

The New Brockton Gamecocks will be looking to even its record and move up in the region standings Friday night when they travel to Daleville to meet the winless Daleville Warhawks.

New Brockton leads the all-time series 6-5, while Daleville posted a 34-24 last season in the last meeting between the region rivals.

New Brockton will carry a 1-2 record into the game with a win over Opp19-13 and losses to Elba 35-8 and Providence Christian 38-14, while Daleville will enter the game with an 0-3 record with losses to Goshen 49-22, Houston Academy 55-16 and Straughn 46-16.

Samson at Zion Chapel

The Zion Chapel Rebels will be looking to even its record and claim an important region win at home when they host the winless Samson Tigers.

Samson leads the all-time series 15-5, while Zion Chapel posted a 19-6 win last season for its first win in the series since back in 1990.

Zion Chapel will bring a 1-2 record into the region clash after a forfeit win over Pike Liberal Arts and region losses to Goshen 35-7 and Wicksburg 30-14, while Samson will come into the game with an 0-2 record after falling to Kinston 34-6 and G.W. Long 35-0.
